2. The petitioner in paragraph no. 1 of the present writ petition has sought inter alia following relief(s), which is reproduced hereinafter:-

“(i) For issuance of an appropriate writ/order/direction declaring the actions of the respondents not publishing the result after selection process in favour of EBC (Female) category in spite of vacancies shown in the advertisement for this category.

(ii) For issuance of an appropriate writ/order/direction that petitioner being a candidate/applicant of EBC (Female) category has been deprived her result after interview for appointment on the post of Assistant Professor in subject Sociology in pursuance of Advertisement No.AP-Soci-17/20-21 for which category 7 post were shown to be filled up from the candidate of petitioner category but no result has been shown against the category of the petitioner.

(iii) For issuance of appropriate writ/order/direction that the petitioner has been kept outside the zone of the appointment on the post of Assistant Professor in the subject Sociology on the basis of not allotting marks against all five articles in arbitrary manner though petitioner was entitled for 10 marks under aforesaid head as per the Advertisement No.AP-Soci-17-20-21.

(iv) For issuance of an appropriate writ/order/direction to publish the final result of the petitioner after addition of 10 marks of the articles and petitioner may be selected and appointed on the post of Assistant Professor in subject Sociology in pursuance of Advertisement No.AP-Soci-17-20-21.

(v) For issuance of an appropriate writ/order/direction granting any other relief or reliefs for which the petitioner is found entitled.

3. It appears that the Chairman of the Bihar State University Service Commission (hereinafter to be referred as the 'Commission') and the functionaries of the Commission have not understood the law laid down by the Apex Court and the mandate of Article 15 of the Constitution of India, which provides for horizontal reservation in the case of the petitioner. There are seven vacancies and the result for the same has not been published till date.

4. This Court has no alternative than to direct the Chairman of the Commission to abide by the constitutional provisions and the terms and conditions of the advertisement by publishing the result without any delay.
