For the Opposite Party/s : Mr.Bharat Bhushan, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

2 15-05-2025 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is apprehending arrest in connection with Hajipur Sadar P.S. Case No. 70 of 2017 instituted under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code lodged on 02.03.2017 by the informant, Girja Devi.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that when her husband had gone to the field, the accused persons came and brutally assaulted him by 'Lautha' and he succumbed to the injury on the spot itself. As the neighbours reached, the accused disappeared. This led to the FIR.

4. Though, learned counsel for the petitioner tried to impress upon this Court about his innocence, learned APP, Mr. Bharat Bhushan has taken this Court to the learned Sessions Judge's observation to show that charge-sheet has been submitted against this petitioner amongst other under section 302/34 of the IPC showing him as an absconder. He as such submits that the entire process stand completed and in that background, he should seek bail.

5. Considering the submissions of the parties as also the point raised by the learned APP, as incorporated in the learned Sessions Judge’s order, no case for grant of relief is made out.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application stands rejected.
