CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESH CHAND MALVIYA

ORAL ORDER

3 20-06-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the State and learned counsel for the Union of India.

2. The petitioner is in custody in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 21 and 22 of the NDPS Act.

3. As per allegation in the FIR, the informant and other police personnel reached at the spot and intercepted the vehicle bearing registration no.BR-01AP-7580 (Black color) which was driven by the petitioner and from his possession, 2553 bottles of codeine, 100 ml each containing Eskul cough syrup was recovered and petitioner could not produce any valid documents.

4. Earlier the prayer for bail of this petitioner was rejected by this Court passed in Cr. Misc. No. 40140 of 2024 vide order dated 15.07.2024 and there is no fresh ground to reconsider the prayer for bail of this petitioner and also the fact that the judgment of Hira Singh vs. Union of India Supreme Court held that total weight of the manufactured drug or preparation including the neutral material is required to be considered while determining small quantity or commercial quantity, so I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is hereby again rejected.
