3. On account of a dispute relating to non-payment of remuneration, when the informant raised his grievance, allegedly, the petitioners along with co-accused persons brutally assaulted him. 4. Learned counsel for the petitioners taking this Court through the FIR contended that neither the date and time of occurrence has been mentioned therein nor it has been disclosed that the petitioner no.2 has assaulted the informant over which part of his body. The petitioners are none else but the ladies and mother and sister of the co-accused Vishal Pandit against whom the allegation of non-payment of remuneration has been made. There is omnibus allegation against all the accused persons and the injury which is said to be grievous in nature has not been attributed against anyone. Learned counsel for the petitioners further contended that genesis of the occurrence is, in fact, a petty dispute resulting into some scuffle, leading to unfortunate injury. There is a counter version of the present case being Mairwa P.S. Case No.10 of 2025 lodged by the petitioners' side.

5. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State opposed the bail application.

6. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and considering the factum of case and counter case, coupled with the fact that the petitioners are ladies having fair antecedent and the injuries are not attributed to them, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the
