ORAL ORDER

- 8 16-06-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the opposite party no.2.
2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case no.941C of 2023 registered under Sections

3. As per complaint, the complainant states that her

After some years of marriage, all accused persons including the on account of non-fulfillment of demand of dowry and ultimately ousted her from matrimonial house.

allegations against the petitioner are false and concocted. The matter had earlier gone before the Patna High Court Mediation Centre, however, the mediation process has failed.

5. Today, learned Advocates appearing on behalf of the parties jointly submitted that the matter has already been compromised between the parties in the learned Court below.

6. The application for anticipatory bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State. However, learned counsel for the opposite party has no objection to the same.

7. In view of the aforesaid facts of the case, it is directed that the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks, be released on anticipatory bail in connection with Complaint Case no.941C of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M, Araria/Successor Court, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure/Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S, 2023.
