3. On the fateful day, while the informant was at his house, in the meantime, the petitioner along with Dipak Kumar armed with Iron rod and Khanti barged into the house and assaulted the informant. It is specifically alleged that the petitioner assaulted the informant by means of Khanti over his head, due to which he sustained head injuries. In order to rescue the informant, when his wife and children came there, they were also assaulted by the petitioner and other accused persons. There

However, the petitioner has not instituted the F.I.R., but the informant lodged the present case. Both the parties are own Gotias. Moreover, the injuries, which are said to have been sustained to the informant and others all of them have been found simple in nature, as is evident from the impugned order. The petitioner undertakes that he will fully cooperate in the investigation or in the proceeding of the court and would not indulge in such type of activity in future.

5. On the other hand, learned APP for the State opposes the bail application and submits that on account of assault made by the petitioner, the informant sustained injuries on his vital part of the head.

6. Having considered the submissions set forth by the learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the genesis of the occurrence, coupled with the close proximity between the parties, as also the fair antecedent and simple injury, let the petitioner, named above, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gaya in connection with Fatehpur P.S.
