4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it would be apparent from the FIR itself, that from inquiry from the people of the place of occurrence, the name of three persons including the present petitioner has surfaced in this case and it was stated that with regard to some earlier enmity between the parties firing was going on, at each other. It is further submitted that besides this information given by the local people there is no other material to connect the petitioner in the present case.
