6. Needless to say if the petitioner’s case is similar to that of Dr. Shamsher Bahadur Singh, the State would be under a legal obligation even under their own Litigation Policy, 2011 to extend the same benefit to the petitioner. In this connection, this Court would only remind the authorities regarding the provisions contained in Clause 4.C (1) of the Bihar Litigation Policy – 2011.”

That, it is stated that accordingly in compliance of order under contempt after due consideration of each and every aspect of the matter a reasoned order has already been passed within time frame rejecting the claim of petitioner and communicated the same to the petitioner also for information."

4. A copy of the order No. 1239 dated 30.05.2019 passed in terms of the above has also been annexed as Annexure – A to the show cause.
