ORAL ORDER

learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 30(a), 32 and 56(b) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, total 1630.00 litres of illicit codeine cough syrup has been recovered from a closed container truck and a pick-up vehicle.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case. Nothing incriminating has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. Petitioner has no concern with the alleged recovery.

5. Learned APP for the State has opposed the bail petition and submits that petitioner is owner of the container truck.

6. Considering the quantity of recovery and the fact that petitioner is registered owner of the container truck from which the said recovery has been effected, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected.
