ORAL ORDER

4 19-11-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as

learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 1358 of 2023, registered for the offences punishable under Section 406 of the IPC.

3. As per the allegation, after receiving Rs. 1,50,000 as consideration money in lieu of the transfer of land by the petitioner in favour of the complainant, he neither returned the money nor executed the sale deed.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated. It has further been submitted that no chit of paper regarding the payment of the amount has been produced by the informant.

5. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

6. The impugned order shows that the petitioner assured to return the money, but even after several attempts, he could not pay that amount. From perusal of order dated 03-9-2025, passed by the co-ordinate Bench, it appears that the petitioner was ready to return the balance amount of Rs. 1 lakh within a period of four weeks, but even after lapse of near about eight weeks, that amount has not been given to the informant.

7. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, in my view, the petitioner doesn't deserve the privileges for anticipatory bail. Accordingly, it is rejected.
