CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

- 315-10-2025
1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of anticipatory bail apprehending his arrest in connection with Dobhi P.S. Case no.92 of 2024 registered under sections 307, 341, 323, 324, 379, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per the prosecution case, the informant states that as a result of construction of house on the land belonging to him, the 13 named accused persons including the petitioner herein came variously armed. It is further stated that the petitioner and one Ranjeet Kumar assaulted the informant on his head with a khanti leading to grievous injury.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. It is submitted that the parties are agnates and the injury report does not support the allegation of assault by so many persons. It is further submitted that there is admitted land dispute between the parties which is evident from the contents of the FIR itself. There is case and counter case and the petitioner has no criminal antecedent. He undertakes to cooperate in the case.

5. The application for anticipatory bail is opposed by learned A.P.P for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegation of assault by the petitioner and one another on the informant, resulting in grievous injury having been caused on the head of the informant, in the facts of the case, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail and the application is rejected.

7. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the learned Court below within a period of four weeks.

8. It is directed that if the petitioner surrenders within the aforesaid period and prays for regular bail, the same shall be considered without being prejudiced by this order of rejection.
