ORAL ORDER

2 16-07-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 190, 115(2), 126(2), 76, 63(d)(vi) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita and Sections 4 and 6 of the POCSO Act.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and petitioner No. 4 is a senior citizen aged about 72 years. It is next submitted that petitioners in the instant anticipatory bail application, are family members of Rupesh against whom it is alleged that he entered the house of the informant in her absence and tried to commit rape of the victim and when the victim raised an alarm, the informant along with others came and caught hold of Rupesh, but then his family members came and took him away.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that that thrust of the allegation is against Rupesh and since petitioners are family members of Rupesh, they have also been implicated in order to coerce Rupesh into submission without any specific allegations against them.

5. Learned APP and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail, but then are not in a position to rebut the submission of the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners that the thrust of the allegation is against Rupesh.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Inarwa P.S. Case No. 45 of 2025, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the BNSS.
