2. The petitioner seeks bail in connection with G.B. Nagar P.S. Case No. 560 of 2024 registered for the offence under Sections 103(1) and 61(2) Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (for short ‘B.N.S.’).

3. The petitioner is named in the F.I.R. and is in custody since 26.04.2025.

4. The allegation against the petitioner is to commit murder of father of the informant along with other co-accused persons by using brick plate and iron rod.

5. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that specific allegation to cause fatal assault to the father of the informant is available against co-accused Ajay Kumar and Sunil. It is pointed out that the petitioner implicated with present case without having any overt act and considering this aspect learned co-ordinate Bench of this Court granted bail to one similarly situated co-accused namely, Raj Kumar through Cr. Misc. No. 6947 of 2025 vide order dated 19.02.2025 and, therefore, considering the judicial parity, this petitioner also deserves bail. While concluding the argument, it is submitted that petitioner found involved in one more criminal case, where he is on bail and moreover, investigation of this case is already completed, for which charge-sheet has been submitted, as such, there is no chance of tampering with the evidence.

6. Learned APP duly assisted by Kumari Anupam, learned counsel for the informant while opposing the prayer of bail submitted that petitioner was actively involved in the occurrence as per FIR, where informant is the eye witness of the occurrence.

7. In view of aforesaid factual submissions and by taking note of fact as allegation of fatal assault is not specifically available against this petitioner, where similarly situated co-accused has already granted bail by one of the learned co-ordinate Bench of this Court, as discussed aforesaid, coupled with fact that investigation is already completed, where petitioner remains in custody since 26.04.2025, accordingly, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on bail in connection with G.B. Nagar P.S.
