ORAL ORDER

3 31-07-2025 The present Criminal Revision Petition has been preferred against the impugned judgment and order dated 21.04.2022, whereby the Petitioner has been directed to pay maintenance to the Opposite Party Nos. 1 to 4, who are wife and children of the Petitioner respectively.

2. However, the petition has been filed four days after expiry of the limitation as per the office notes. Even otherwise, I find that the impugned judgment is well discussed and reasoned and there is no infirmity in it.

3. Hence, the present petition is dismissed as time barred, as no application for condonation of delay has been filed explaining the delay in filing the petition.

4. At this stage, learned counsel for the Petitioner informs that the Opposite Party Nos.2 & 3 have become major and they should not get maintenance.

5. Under such facts and circumstances, the Petitioner is at liberty to file appropriate application under Section 127 Cr.PC before the Family Court for modification of the impugned order in the light of the changed circumstances.
