CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

2 08-07-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

2. The present writ petition has been filed for the following reliefs:-

(a) For issuance of appropriate writ/ Order or direction to set aside annexure-8 of this writ application and directed to respondent no. 3 for appointment on ground of compassionate to this petitioner on death of her father (Night Guard, Class IV), dated 30.01.2014.

(b) For issuance of appropriate writ/ order or direction to respondent to release the retirement benefit due whatever to this petitioner as a sole dependent daughter of her father.

(c) For issuance of appropriate writ/ order or direction to the respondents as requirement at the time of hearing and other relief as short as on judicature.

3. Learned counsel for the State submits that the District Compassionate Committee, at the time of rejecting the claim of the petitioner, has taken a reasonable decision, as the committee has described the situation under which the claim of the petitioner was not considered.

4. Upon perusal of the same, it transpires to this Court that a disputed question is involved in the present matter, therefore, this case cannot be decided by the Writ Court. As such, the petitioner shall be at liberty to file a Title Suit before the Civil Court for a declaration that she is the only heir of her father.

5. Accordingly, the present writ petition stands disposed off.
