CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHANDRA SHEKHAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 20-08-2025 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned APP appearing on behalf of the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Gwalpara
P.S. Case No. 208/2024, registered for the offence under Sections 126(2), 127(2), 70(2) of the BNS.

3. The accused/petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. and is in custody since 03.01.2025.

4. As per FIR, two named co-accused persons committed rape upon the informant aged about 24 years, wife of one Siyaram Suthiar.

5. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that as per FIR and statement of victim recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., the thrust of allegation qua committing rape is available against two named co-accused persons i.e.

Manish Thakur and Rajesh Yadav. It is submitted that out of village politics, petitioner was implicated as unknown accomplice of the named main co-accused. There is no allegation against petitioner to commit rape, rather implicated with general and omnibus allegation as to confine husband of the informant unlawfully in his home while occurrence committed upon the informant. It is further submitted by learned counsel that the victim examined within 48 hours of the occurrence but upon her medical examination, no recent sign of intercourse was noticed and no injury was also found on private part of the victim, further making allegation prima facie false on its face. While concluding argument, it is submitted that investigation of this case is already completed, for which charge-sheet has been submitted, as such, there is no chance of tampering with the evidence and, moreover, petitioner is a man of clean antecedent.

6. Learned APP opposed the prayer of bail.

7. Considering the aforesaid factual submissions and by taking note of fact as allegation of rape is not available against this petitioner, coupled with the fact that investigation of this case is already completed, where petitioner remains in custody since 03.01.2025, accordingly, petitioner above named, is directed to be released on bail in connection with Gwalpara P.S. Case No.
