CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE S. B. PD. SINGH
ORAL ORDER

5 18-01-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in a case instituted for the offence punishable under Sections 419, 420,

406 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. According to the complaint case, at the instance of the petitioner, the complainant paid total Rs. 11,00,000/-

(eleven lakh rupees) to one Digambar Prasad Singh and Rs.

10,00,000/- (ten lakh rupees) to one Urmila Devi on the basis of two registered agreement for sale deed dated 22.07.2016 and 22.08.2016 respectively. When the complainant went to the land to get it measured, other persons, impersonating themselves as son of Urmila Devi came there and denied to execute the agreement for sale deed.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He is completely unknown for this matter and he is not related with it in any manner. He has been dragged in this case merely on the fact that he is the son of co-accused Pradeep Bhagat.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer of bail.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case and perusal of the complaint petition as well as SA of complainant, it clearly transpires that no allegation has been levelled against the petitioner regarding any inducement, cheating and criminal breach of trust at all, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender in connection with Complaint case No. 2932(c) of 2017, he will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Patna, subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
