CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

2      02-09-2025                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the Bihar Technical Service Commission as also the other respondents.

2. The petitioners have filed the instant application for the following relief(s):

“That this writ application in being filed on behalf of the petitioners above named for issuance of an appropriate writ/writs, order/orders or direction/directions in the nature of writ of Mandamus, commanding and directing the respondents concerned and it's authority to extension of date for online applying examination form of the selection of Staff Nursing under Advertisement No. 23 of 2025 whereby and whereunder the petitioners would appearing aforesaid examination. Further directing to the respondents and it's authority to extension of date in computer Data in place of 11.03.2025 for applying the examination of the selection of Staff Nursing under Advertisement No. 23 of 2025.

Further directing to the respondents and it's authority to certificate no and the certificate issue date not mandatory for applying the examination of selection of Staff Nursing under Advertisement no. 23 of 2025.

Further directing to the respondents and it's authority to Transfer Code not mandatory for applying the examination of selection of Staff Nursing under Advertisement no. 23 of 2025.

Further directing to the respondents and it's authority to B.Sc(Nursing) unable for applying the examination of selection of Staff Nursing under Advertisement no. 23 of 2025.

Further, for issuance of any other appropriate writ/writs, order/orders or direction/directions for which petitioner would be found entitled under the facts and circumstances of the case.”

3. The relevant facts in brief are that the Bihar Technical Service Commission, Patna came out with an Advertisement No.23 of 2025 for appointment of Staff Nurse. As per the advertisement, the last date for filing application was 7.6.2025 which was later extended to 13.6.2025.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel appearing for the petitioners that the eligibility for appearing in the aforesaid exam was of Diploma Programme Course of General Nursing and Midwifery (GNM), the certificate of which was issued to the petitioners on 30.5.2025 and a copy of which has been brought on record as Annexure P/3 to the petition. The application of the petitioners not having been accepted online, hence, the instant writ application.

5. Learned counsel for the respondents in reference to the material on record in the writ application submits that from the contents of the Advertisement no.23 of 2025 (Annexure P/1) itself it would transpire that while the last date for filing of the application was extended from 7.6.2025 to 13.6.2025, Clause 6 of the advertisement clearly provided the eligibility for appearing in the examination, one of which was that the candidate should have qualified in the General Nursing and Midwifery from a recognized institution. The said clause clearly provided that all the certificates/marksheets should have been issued by the respective institutions on or before 23.5.2025. So far as the petitioners are concerned, admittedly the certificate with respect to the GNM course in their case has been issued after the cut off date on 30.5.2025.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the submissions made as also the contents of the advertisement, it goes without saying that Clause 6 thereof is absolutely clear in so far as the supporting documents/qualification, the candidate is required to have the same with the certificate having been issued by the respective recognized institution on or before 23.5.2025 which is the cut off date. Admittedly, the petitioners did not have the same, the certificate of the petitioners having been issued after the cut off date on 30.5.2025. Thus the application filed by the petitioners was rightly not accepted by the respondents.

7. In the facts of the case, the Court does not find any merit in the instant application and the same is dismissed.
