APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 317(2), 305 (c) of the BNS.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in connection with the present case. It is further submitted that the bag, in question, belongs to the petitioner himself and he has been falsely implicated in this case on account of his past criminal antecedents. It is submitted that though the petitioner is stated to have criminal antecedents of eight cases, he has not committed the present offence.
