ORAL ORDER

2 25-07-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Raniganj P.S. Case No. 474 of 2024 instituted for the offences under Sections 310(2) of the BNS and Sections 25(1-b), 26, 27
of the Arms Act.

3. Prosecution case, in short, is that six unknown miscreants made indiscriminate firing upon the informant and his associates, looted around Rs. 8,78,000/- from him and fled away.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case.
Petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. The name of the petitioner transpired in this case during investigation. No incriminating article has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. Learned counsel further submitted that petitioner has got no concern with the looted articles. It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner is remanded in this case on 16-05-2025 and has two criminal antecedents.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner. Learned APP further submitted that as per the material available in the case diary, the co-accused person namely Rahul Yadav has himself confessed his guilt and disclosed the manner in which he along with other associates including this petitioner committed the alleged offence and on the basis of the disclosure made by him, the firearm used in the alleged occurrence has also been recovered, and therefore, the petitioner may not be released on bail. Bail of similarly situated co-accused has been rejected by this Court vide order dated 18-06-2025, passed in Cr. Misc. No. 16955 of 2025.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and the nature and gravity of offence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner is, hereby, rejected at this stage.

8 Learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial.
