learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Kharik P.S. Case No. 210 of 2023 for the offence under Sections 379, 411, 414, 120(B) and 34 of the I.P.C.

3. According to the prosecution story, after receiving secret information, the informant went to the banana field of Prabhas Jha, where it came to his knowledge that all the accused persons were involved in the illegal activity of oil theft and they were secretly selling the stolen oil. Stolen diesel was also recovered from that place and accordingly seizure list was prepared.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is quite innocent and has not committed any offence rather he has falsely been implicated in this case due to dirty local politics. The prosecution story is totally false and concocted and investigation is still going on. Petitioner is a labour and works on daily wages. As per seizure list, the seized property is of Prabhas Jha and the same has no concern with the accused petitioner.

5. Learned APP opposes the prayer for bail.

6. From perusal of seizure list, it transpires that place of seizure is the field of Prabhas Jha. Neither the petitioner nor any independent witness has made his signature on the seizure list. As per para 59 of the case diary, after completion of investigation, chargesheet has been submitted against the petitioner by the police.

7. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of anticipatory bail.

8. Let the petitioner be released on bail in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of this order, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned
