3. The prosecution case, in short, is that the informant, Pravesh Ravidas, was reconstructing his old house to perform his daughter's marriage, as he had earlier been obstructed by Suryadev Ravidas (petitioner no.1) and others from building on his vacant land. On the day of the incident, at around 10:00 AM, twelve accused persons armed with sticks, spears, and sickles arrived and brutally assaulted the informant and his family members without any reason. Three persons, Naresh Das, Rajdev Das, and Satish Das, suffered grievous head injuries from sharp weapons, while Vakil Das sustained a hand injury with fracture, and other family members were also injured. During the assault, petitioners abused the informant and declared that they would not allow him to build a house or perform his daughter's marriage. The injured were referred to Anugrah Narayan Magadh Medical College & Hospital, Gaya for treatment.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in the present case. It is submitted that the First Information Report (FIR) has been lodged against twelve accused persons, including the petitioners.
