ORAL ORDER

2 21-08-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Gandhi Maidan P.S. Case No. 257 of 2015, registered for offence punishable under Sections 406, 420, 467, 468 and 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The prosecution case, in brief, is that this petitioner used to collect the outstanding amount of the bank from the borrower in the Patna office of Hi-Tek Syndicate and after issuing receipt used to deposit the outstanding amount to the bank, but suddenly the petitioner reported to his office that the official receipt book had been lost and he accordingly lodged a Sanha at the concerned police station. It is further alleged that after two days, the office came to know from its reliable source that some unknown persons are fraudulently collecting money from the borrowers by misusing pages from the lost receipt book and issuing forged receipts and when in this regard, the office tried to contact petitioner, he was not found.

4. Considering the nature of accusation and the fact that F.I.R. was lodged in the year 2015 and petitioner has moved this application for grant of anticipatory bail after a lapse of 10 years, the prayer for anticipatory bail of petitioner is rejected.
