of the Indian Penal Code and section 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act.

3. Earlier notices have been issued to the Opposite Party arriving at an amicable settlement. However, the mediation report would show that the mediation had failed despite the best efforts.

4. The petitioner is the husband of the informant and he has made categorical statement in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this petition that he is keeping both his wife and his children and is also maintaining them but some dispute still remained to adjudicate between them.
