APP for the State.

2. Petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 118(2), 109 and 3(5) of the B.N.S. as well as under Section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that petitioner has got two criminal antecedents and the informant alleges that Golu handed over a pistol to petitioner who fired causing firearm injuries on hand and waist. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case by the informant. It is next submitted that it does not appear probable that petitioner after taking pistol from Golu would have fired.

4. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner by submitting that petitioner has got two criminal antecedents and there is specific allegation against this petitioner of causing firearm injuries to the informant.

5. Considering the submissions made by learned APP for the State, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner is hereby rejected in connection with Nayagaon P.S. Case No.154 of 2024.
