ORAL ORDER

2 17-01-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and Learned APP for the State.

2. The instant application for anticipatory bail have been filed by the petitioners apprehending their arrest in connection with Madhubani P.S. Case No. 556 of 2023 dated 05.11.2023 instituted for the offences punishable under Section 363, 366A, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal code and Section 8 of the POCSO Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, F.I.R. has been lodged against five named accused persons including the present petitioners against whom there is an allegation of kidnapping the informant's minor daughter aged about 17 years and informant's minor grand daughter aged about 16 years as they were returning from school.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that both the petitioners have clean antecedent. He submits that victim has not supported the allegation levelled against the petitioners in her statement recorded under section 164 of the Cr.P.C. He further submits that there is an inordinate delay of 06 days in lodging F.I.R. without having plausible explanation.

5. Learned APP opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner.

6. Considering the serious nature of allegation levelled against the petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners are hereby rejected.
