learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 190, 126(3), 115(2), 118(1), 117(2), 109, 74, 303(2), 352, 351(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.

3. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that accused persons came and petitioner assaulted Lalu with farsa causing injury on head.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant. It is further submitted that even presuming what has been alleged is true without admitting, then petitioner is alleged to have assaulted Lalu by farsa causing injury on head, but then injury has been opined by the doctors to be simple in nature, as specifically pleaded at para-8 of the anticipatory bail application.

5. The learned APP opposes the anticipatory bail application and submits that though it has been pleaded at para-8 that the injury suffered by Lalu is simple in nature, but then the injury report is not on record nor the order impugned records that the injury suffered by Lalu is simple in nature.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on Provisional anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Anti P.S. 7. It is made clear that thereafter the learned Trial Court shall verify the injury report of Lalu and in the event if it is found that the injury suffered by Lalu on head is opined to be grievous, in that event, the provisional anticipatory bail order shall be cancelled forthwith, but after verification if it is found that the injury suffered by Lalu on head is opined to be simple, in that event the provisional anticipatory bail order shall be confirmed forthwith.
