3. Prosecution case in a nutshell is that petitioner allegedly kidnapped the informant's daughter with ill intention.

4. It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 24.05.2025. Petitioner bears no criminal antecedents, as per disclosure made in paragraph No. 3 of the bail application.

5. It has been further submitted by the petitioner's counsel that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. Referring to the statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 of the BNSS, 2023, it is submitted that there is no allegation of sexual assault against the petitioner and she was not taken by the petitioner forcefully. It is further submitted that there is no ingredients of Sections 137(2) & 96 against the petitioner. Learned counsel next submits that petitioner and victim has solemnized marriage. Charge sheet has already been submitted in this case under Sections 137(2) & 96 of the BNS, 2023.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody of the petitioner, there being no material against the petitioner even in the statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 of the BNSS, 2023 and charge sheet being submitted, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

8. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 15,000/- (Fifteen Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Court below/concerned Court in connection with Sarairanjan P.S. Case

No. 183 of 2024, subject to the following conditions:

(I) One of the bailors shall be own/close member of the family of the petitioner.

(II) The petitioner shall appear on each and every date fixed at the trial. In case of default in such appearance on two consecutive dates, the Trial Court will have liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.
