CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

9 28-11-2025 1. Heard the parties.

2. Petitioners in all these cases except CWJC No. 20898 of 2018 have filed the contempt applications for non-compliance of the order dated 22.02.2023 passed in CWJC No. 20716 of 2018. MJC No. 2423 of 2023 has been filed for non-compliance of the order dated 03.03.2023 passed in CWJC No. 20898 of 2018.

3. While disposing the writ petition, this court directed the respondent/bank to pay the retiral benefits to the petitioners as per the modalities fixed by them within a period of four months from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have not been paid the retiral benefits as per the modalities fixed by the opposite parties pursuant to the order passed by this Court and affirmed up to the Hon'ble Supreme Court. She also submits that part payment of provident fund has only been paid to the petitioners and the payment towards gratuity amount and leave encashment, group insurance, and arrear of provident fund has not been paid.

5. Mr. Rajesh Kumar Chaudhary, Mr. Thakur, Mr. J.B. Verma, and Mr. Sanjay Singh Thakur, learned counsel appearing for the opposite parties, jointly submits that as per the modalities, payments have been made. Insofar as payment towards gratuity amount and leave encashment are concerned, the same has not been paid to the petitioners due to the fact that punishment order in departmental proceeding has been passed against the petitioners for stoppage of gratuity amount and leave encashment. Insofar as provident fund is concerned, learned counsel submits that entire provident fund has already been made as per the calculation done by the bank and the signature put upon the calculation by the petitioners. With regard to payment of group insurance, learned counsel submits that as per the modalities, the payment of group insurance has matured and the same shall be paid very soon.

6. Considering the submissions made by the parties and the fact that punishment order in departmental proceeding has been passed against the petitioners withholding gratuity and leave encashment, the petitioners shall be at liberty to challenge the punishment order before the appellate authority in accordance with law and if such an appeal is filed, the appellate authority shall consider the same on its merit and dispose the appeal without going into the question of time barred/limitation expeditiously preferably within a period of three months from the date of filing of appeal by the petitioners. Insofar as contention of the petitioners regarding part payment of provident fund, the petitioners shall be at liberty to file a representation before the appropriate authority, and if such a representation is filed, the appropriate authority shall dispose the same expeditiously. The group insurance amount shall be paid to the petitioners as early as possible, preferably within a period of three months from today.

7. With the aforesaid directions and observations, all these contempt applications are disposed.
