Case No. 579 of 2024 for theft of electricity and due to lodging of that case, the informant and her husband were assaulted by the petitioner and other co-accused persons. It is further alleged that on 20.05.2025 at about 06:30 PM, the petitioner along with five other unknown miscreants, who were armed with lathi, danda and iron-rod, assaulted the informant and her family members. It is further alleged that the petitioner with an intention to kill inflicted iron-rod blow on the husband of the informant, who received fracture injury on his hand and accused Shankar Thakur inflicted lathi blow to the informant due to which she fell on the ground. The petitioner tried to outrage the modesty of the informant and also snatched her mangalsutra.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The alleged occurrence took place on 20.05.2025, but the FIR has been lodged on 24.05.2025 after a delay of four days without giving any explanation for the said delay. Injury report of the injured persons suggest that all the injuries were simple in nature, except the injury no. 1 inflicted on the husband of the informant, which was found to be grievous in nature, however, the said injury is on non-vital part of the body. The petitioner carries one criminal antecedent as stated in paragraph no. 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody since 25.05.2025.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner.
