Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his/her arrest in connection with S.K. Puri P.S. Case No. 221 of 2022, dated 14.06.2022, registered under Sections 379 and 420 of the I.P.C. which is now under Sections 303(2) and 418(4) of the B.N.S.

3. The prosecution case, in brief, is that on 10.06.2022 the informant got a call on his whatsapp from a number saved as Mudra Loan as Dear customer you had applied for loan from Mudra Finance, if you want to take a loan, then please put it in this number. Thereafter it was told that your Mudra loan of Rs. 6,00,000 is in process, to get it you will have to pay Rs. 1500 as process fee first. Then accused gave his account no. 198822010000487 to the informant, in which informant transferred money. Again informant transferred Rs. 9,999 and Rs. 17200 to the same account, as per their instructions. After that accused Minku Kumar gave one more account no. 3697820100675 of Avinash Kumar, in which informant transferred Rs. 10,000 from another paytm account. Then suspicion arose in his mind and on 12.06.2022, informant immediately made complaint through a call to customer care at Union Bank of India and on 13.06.2022, informant registered a complaint and requested for appropriate action. The Bank has also told informant to go to Police Station and register a case, in this regard.

4. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the manner in which the petitioner has been sought to be implicated in the present case is completely a cooked up story, but in order to show his innocence, he is ready to deposit the amount in question before the court concerned without accepting his guilt, which may be made subject to the final result of the case.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State has submitted that the course, which is being adopted by the petitioner, may be accepted in the interest of justice and appropriate directions may be issued to the petitioner to deposit the said amount at the time of furnishing bail bond.

6. The petitioner is directed to deposit the said amount before the court concerned, which shall be kept in the Nazarat, and shall not be paid to either of the parties until the matter is finally adjudicated.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts, let the above named petitioner, be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of his/her arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M.-IV, Patna in connection with S.K.
