2. The petitioner apprehends her arrest in connection with Warisaliganj P.S. Case no.140 of 2023 registered under sections 420, 419 and 379 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 66D of the I.T. Act.

The allegations against the petitioner are totally incorrect and as a matter of fact no money has been withdrawn by the petitioner from her C.S.P rather the petitioner had given a petition before the Branch Manager, S.B.I, Warsaliganj regarding fraudulent withdrawal of money and the Chief Manager of S.B.I also issued a certificate wherein it was clearly stated that the alleged withdrawal from the account of the informant has been made from a different Customer Service Point and not at the outlet of S.B.I. The application of petitioner filed before the Superintendent of Police and the certificate of the S.B.I issued by the Chief Manager of S.B.I are both annexed as Annexure-3 Series to the present application. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner has been running C.S.P from the past 8 years with all honesty and integrity and would not ruin her carrier at this stage. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent and undertakes to cooperate in the case/trial.
