... .. Opposite Party/s

Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Jay Ram Prasad, Adv.

For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Ajay Kumar No. 2, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 10-09-2025 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioners and learned Advocate for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Gopalpur P.S. Case No.236 of 2025 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109, 352, 329(4) and 3(5) of the BNS, 2023 and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. Allegedly on the fateful day, when the informant went to the petitioners' house in order to ask her due amount of Rs.5 lac, they refused to return and started abusing and assaulting along with other associates. It is further alleged that petitioner no.1 had taken Rs.5 lac from the informant for her daughter's wedding and when she demanded her money, all of them thrashed her. It is further alleged that one Bittu Kumar, later on came to the house of the informant and fired a bullet; the empty cartridge of which was handed over to the concerned police station.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioners contended that with regard to the occurrence, which took place on 05.06.2025, the present FIR came to be instituted on 14.06.2025, without there being any explanation and, as such, the deliberation and afterthought cannot be ruled out. The FIR also suggests that none has sustained any injury nor there is any discussion in this regard in the impugned order. Both the parties are agnate and there is a family dispute, which led to filing of the present FIR only with a view to mount pressure. The petitioners undertake that they will full cooperate in the proceeding of the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and submitted that criminal antecedent of the petitioners as disclosed in para-3, clearly speaks about their habitual involvement in such type of activities.

6. Having considered the submissions advanced by the learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the omnibus allegation, coupled with the fact that none has sustained injury, besides the delay in lodging of the FIR, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned J.M.F.C., Patna in connection with Gopalpur P.S. Case No.236 of 2025, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS, with further condition that one of the bailors shall be the own/close family members of the petitioners.
