Appearance :

For the Petitioners : Ms. Chandni Kumari, Advocate
For the State : Mr. Lalan Kumar, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 18-09-2025 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and learned APP appearing on behalf of the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 191(2), 126(2), 115(2), 110 and 132 of the B.N.S..

3. As per prosecution case, informant, who is a government employee, alleges that while he was executing a government project, in the meantime, these petitioners, along with one another F.I.R. named accused persons, abused and assaulted him and created hindrance in discharge of official duties.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners that petitioners are quite innocent and have committed no offence. Petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case merely on suspicion. Allegation of abuse and assault is general and omnibus and no specific accusation of overt act has been alleged against these petitioners. Petitioner Nos. 2, 3 and 4 have got no criminal antecedents and Petitioner No. 1 has got one criminal antecedent in which he is already on bail.

5. On the other hand, learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners and submitted that petitioners are named in the F.I.R. with specific accusation that they abused and assaulted informant while he was executing a government project and thus, created hindrance in discharge of official duties.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and nature of accusation, the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners is rejected.
