Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Gajendra Nath Ojha, Advocate.
For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Ravindra Kumar, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

2 18-11-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State Ravindra Kumar.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Ekma P.S. Case No.539/2023, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 325, 354(B) and 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that the offences for which the instant FIR has been instituted carries punishment of seven years and less and the petitioners have been given notice under Section 41A Cr.P.C. and the petitioners are co-operating in the investigation.

4. Learned APP Mr. Ravindra Kumar opposes the anticipatory bail application and submits that the law is clear that when police does not intend to arrest an accused, it is only in such condition that notice under Section 41A Cr.P.C. is issued. It is thus submitted that petitioners for the present do not have any apprehension of arrest.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned APP, the Court is not inclined to entertain the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners is disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to file afresh, if need arises.
