ORAL ORDER

4 30-08-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 1651 of 2023 initially registered for the offence punishable under Sections-147, 148, 149, 323, 379, 498(A), 504 of the Indian Penal Code and later on, cognizance has been taken against the petitioner for the offence punishable under Sections-323, 341, 498(A) and 504 of the Indian Penal Code as well as ¾ of Dowry Prohibition Act.

3. As per complaint, the marriage of the complainant with the petitioner took place 11 years ago. After two years of the marriage, the accused persons including the petitioner started demanding cash Rs. two lacs as dowry and due to non-fulfillment of the same, they started torturing the complainant and consequently, the complainant with her children was ousted from her matrimonial home.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that it is a case of matrimonial dispute. The petitioner is husband of the complainant. The matter was referred to Patna High Court Medication and Conciliation Centre, where the parties appeared and compromised the case. The terms and conditions of the compromise has been attached with the record.

5. From perusal of terms and conditions annexed with the Mediation Report entered into between the parties, it appears that the petitioner agrees to keep his wife (the complainant) along with the children with full honour and dignity. It was also agreed upon that the family members of both the parties shall not interfere into their personal life and after spending conjugal life cordially with each other for six months, the parties shall file compromise petition in the present case.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, let the petitioner named above, in the event of arrest/surrender within four weeks before the court below be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate-Ist Class/concerned court, Banka in connection with Complaint Case No. 1651 of 2023 subject to the conditions as laid down u/S 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
