CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. SONI SHRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

5 30-04-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned
APP for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

2. The petitioner no. 2 apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 304(B), 201, 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The FIR has been lodged by the father of the deceased girl making an allegation that his daughter has been done to death by the accused persons on non-fulfillment of demand of dowry.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the brother-in-law of the deceased and there is no specific allegation against him in the FIR and he is also living separately and has no concern with the day to day affair of the deceased and her husband. It has also been submitted that the husband, who is primarily responsible for the welfare of the wife, is already in judicial custody and this fact has been brought by way of supplementary affidavit. It would further appear from the present application that two other accused persons of this case being mother-in-law and father-in-law (Petitioner nos. 1 and 3) have also been arrested and have, thus, been taken into judicial custody.

5. The application has been opposed by the learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

6. Taking into consideration the fact that the husband, mother-in-law and father-in-law of the deceased are already in custody and there is no specific allegation against the petitioners who is brother-in-law, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M. Vaishali at Hajipur in connection with Raghapur P.S. Case No. 144 of 2024, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438

(2) of the Cr.P.C. and subject to the further condition that the petitioner shall cooperate in the investigation/trial.
