ORAL ORDER

4 28-02-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the informant.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in connection with Madhepura P.S. Case No.633 of 2024 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 363 and 366(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with two others and four-five unknown miscreants came to the house of the informant. consequences.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case. During course of argument, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that from perusal of the order of the trial court, it is clear that the victim has given her statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C., wherein she has ruled out the story of her kidnapping rather she has stated that she has married with co-accused namely, Mahesh Das out of her own will.
