CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

5 21-02-2025

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioner in this application prays for grant of anticipatory bail apprehending his arrest in connection with Madhaurah P.S. Case no.516 of 2022 registered for the offence punishable under sections 307, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, three named accused persons including the petitioner herein came with the intent to pressurize the brother of the informant to enter into a compromise with respect to the earlier lodged Madhaurah P.S. Case no. 342 of 2022. It is further stated that this petitioner took out a country made pistol and fired from the same with the intention to kill, however, somehow the informant escaped.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. No such occurrence has taken place. Accepting the allegations in the FIR no person has been injured in the entire occurrence. The cause of false implication of the petitioner is political rivalry between the parties as the wife of the petitioner had contested the elections. Coaccused has been enlarged on regular bail.

5. The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegations against the petitioner of having fired upon the informant together with the antecedent of the petitioner, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail and the application is rejected.

7. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the learned Court below within a period of four weeks.
