CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

- 2 11-11-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned A.P.P. for the State and the learned counsel appearing on behalf fo the informant.
2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 103(1), 115(2) and 3(5). of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and are women and the informant alleges that on 18-4-2025 at 10.30 a.m., on account of rain fall, water had accumulated outside her house, accordingly she asked her named agnates to remove the brick for draining the rain water, on account of which the accused persons assaulted her husband and father-in-law by lathi. It is next submitted that on account of assault, her father-in-law suffered injury on head and died during the course of treatment on 20-4-2025 at PMCH.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant. It is next submitted that from perusal of allegations as alleged in the FIR, it would manifest that allegation of assault is not specific. It is also submitted that though it is alleged that accused persons including the petitioners assaulted her father-in-law leading to his death, but then the father-in-law suffered only one injury. It is further submitted that petitioners being female members have been implicated only to coerce the male members into submission.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners, but then are not in a position to rebut the submission of the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners that no specific allegation of assault is alleged against the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners and taking into consideration the fact that petitioners are women, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Ballia P.S. Case No. 127 of 2025, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the BNSS.
