MALVIYA

ORAL ORDER

2 18-01-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Raghopur P.S Case No. 189 of 2023 instituted for the offence punishable under Sections 302 and 34 of the I.P.C.

3. As per allegation in the FIR, it is alleged that it is the case of murder of the brother of the informant by the petitioner and other co-accused persons.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has no criminal antecedent except this case. He also submits that petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence. He has been falsely been implicated in this case.

5. Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner.

6. From perusal of the F.I.R., seizure list, impugned order and case diary, it appears that dead body the deceased recovered from the house of the petitioner and cause of death of the deceased as mentioned in postmortem report is due to asphyxia and fractured in the cartilage of thyroid.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions of learned counsel for the parties, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

8. Accordingly, prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.
