ORAL ORDER

3 10-01-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the informant as well as learned A.P.P for the State.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in connection with Fatehpur P.S. Case No. 196 of 2024 dated 04.04.2024 registered for the offence/s punishable u/ss 304B read with section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per the prosecution case, the petitioner and the co-accused persons are alleged to have killed the informant's daughter due to non-fulfillment of demand of dowry.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. There is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioner. The petitioner is the husband of the deceased. The petitioner neither demanded any dowry nor tortured the deceased. It is further stated that the deceased died in her maternal house. The petitioner has antecedent as stated in para 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody since 05.04.2024.

5. Learned counsel for the informant as well as learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner by submitting that the petitioner is the husband of the deceased who killed the informant's daughter for the sake of dowry within seven years of marriage.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the specific and heinous nature of allegation against the petitioner, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the prayer for bail petition of the petitioner stands rejected.
