For the Opposite Party/s : Mr.Tarun Prasad Mandal

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAWNEET KUMAR PANDEY

ORAL ORDER

2 27-02-2025

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. This is an application for regular bail on behalf of the petitioners for the offences alleged under Sections 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, registered in connection with N.T.P.C. P.S.Case No. 49 of 2024.

3. As per prosecution case, the informant, who is the wife of the deceased, makes allegation that when she was present in her myke, she got an information that on 24.03.2024 someone committed the murder of her husband. Thereafter, she went to her matrimonial house along with her children. She alleges that her husband had illicit relationship with the wife of Pramod Yadav, the elder brother of the deceased. The informant requested to keep the dead-body for paying tributes, but the accused persons cremated the dead-body, just after the post mortem.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have falsely been implicated. They are the agnates of the deceased having no relation with the family affairs of the deceased. The learned counsel has also submitted that co-accused Laxman Yadav, own brother of the deceased, has confessed his guilt and in his confessional statement, he has categorically stated that he killed the deceased. The learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners have been implicated merely because they are the agnates of the deceased. Co-accused Pramod Yadav has been granted bail by this Court in Cr.Misc. No. 61215 of 2024 and the case of the petitioners is on better footing.

5. On the other hand the learned APP has opposed the prayer for bail.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioners, above-named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) each, with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, Barh, Patna in connection with N.T.P.C. P.S.Case No. 49 of 2024, subject to the condition that the petitioners shall cooperate in the disposal of trial and make themselves available as and when required by the court.
