CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJIT KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

4 04-12-2025 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners is directed to make necessary correction in the prayer portion of the writ petition in course of the day.

3. Interlocutory application bearing I.A. No. 1 of 2024 has been filed by the intervenor who is said to be similarly situated and submits that the benefits for which the writ petition has been filed, the intervenor is having similar grievances and in case of adjudication being made in favour of the petitioners, similar benefits may also be directed to be extended in favour of the intervenor petitioner.

4. On the other hand, counsel for the State does not have any objection to the same and he submits that vide Annexure-R/A, the State Government has decided to extend the benefits to all the retired members of the B.P.S.C.

5. The State Government has already directed to the office of the Accountant General by issuing letter no. 22790 dated 15.12.2023 to pay all admissible amount related to the unutilized earned leave to those retired persons by issuing appropriate steps in accordance with law and, therefore, the case of the intervenor petitioner shall also be considered by the office of the Accountant General in order to avoid multiplicity of litigation.

6. For the reasons explained by the counsel for the petitioners and the State, the interlocutory application being I.A. No.1 of 2024 is allowed and the office of the Accountant General is also directed to address the claim of the petitioners including the intervenor namely Dr. Ashok Kumar Sharma in the light of the government decision as contained in Annexure-R/A which is appended with the counter affidavit filed by the State within a period of six weeks from today.

7. Since the matters have already been adjudicated, the office of the Accountant General is directed to adjudicate the same within a period of six weeks, as stated above and the necessary order so passed shall be communicated to the petitioners.

8. With the aforesaid observation and direction, the writ petition stands disposed.
