1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

3. As per the prosecution case, the informant states that the five named accused persons including the two petitioners herein came variously armed. Sumrit Yadav is said to have assaulted the informant with a sharp cutting weapon while the others are said to have brutally assaulted with lathi as a result of which the informant is said to be injured.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in the case. The petitioners undertake to cooperate in the case/trial.

5. The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegations against the petitioners in the FIR, the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners together with the contents of the injury report, it is directed that both the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks, be released on anticipatory bail in connection with Andhramath P.S.
