CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 19-11-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

2. Petitioner seeks regular bail in a case, registered for the offence punishable under Sections 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Based upon the fardbeyan of the informant, the prosecution alleges that the informant received an information that her mother has been killed by someone. On the aforesaid information, the informant rushed to the place where her mother had been living and found her dead body. Later on, she came to know that her mother was killed by the petitioner and one Sanjay Tuddu. It is also alleged that while the petitioner and another accused persons were fleeing from the place of occurrence, the local peoples also saw them.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that informant is not an eye witness to the alleged occurrence and the entire allegation is based on suspicion. Informant has not disclosed the source of information as to how he came to know about the complicity of the petitioner in the present occurrence. During the course of investigation, it has come that petitioner was seen fleeing from the place of occurrence, the independent witnesses have found some blood stains over his t-shirt, which was later on recovered from the place of occurrence and sent to Forensic Science Laboratory, but till date, the report has not come. Similarly situated other co-accused Sanjay Tuddu has already been granted regular bail by a co-ordinate bench of this Court vide order dated 20.11.2024 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 62701 of 2024. Petitioner claims clean antecedent and he is in custody since 19.10.2023.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State vehemently opposes the bail application.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and period of custody, the bail application is allowed. Let the above named petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purnea in connection with S. Tr. No. 358 of 2024 arising out of Mirganj P. S. Case

No. 186 of 2023.
