CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR PANDEY
ORAL ORDER

3 20-03-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 103 (1), 3(5) of the BNS and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the husband of the informant was the driver of Jitendra Singh, he used go to the rented house of Jitendra Singh and returned back to his house as soon as the work was over. On 10.08.2024, Chandan Singh son of Jitendra Singh arrived at her house and took the deceased with him. At 6:00 A.M. Chandan Singh arrived at the house of the informant and brought to Sahyog Hospital and when she reached there, she found the dead body of her husband. When the informant asked about the occurrence, Jitendra Singh told that her husband was laying in a lane just after his one house and he was brought to the hospital and the doctor had declared him dead. The case was registered against unknown miscreants.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in connection with the present case. It is further submitted that during the course of investigation, Spy disclosed the name of Shivam. Shivam has given a confessional statement and in his confessional statement he has named this petitioner. This petitioner has also given his confessional statement. Further submission is that except the confessional statement of Shivam and the petitioner herein made before the police, there is no material in the case diary to implicate him. Moreover, the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 22.08.2024.

5. Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail stating that the petitioner has one criminal antecedent.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Rajiv Nagar P.S. Case No. 462 of 2024 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned
