ORAL ORDER

5 14-07-2025 Heard learned senior counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Chandauti P.S. Case No. 284 of 2024 dated 30.07.2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109 of the B.N.S., 2023 and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, on 30.07.2024 at about 4.00 A.M., the petitioner is alleged to have fired on the husband of the informant, due to which, he received injury. The reason behind the occurrence is that there was love affair between the petitioner and the daughter of the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. It is further submitted that the petitioner has no concern with the alleged offence. It is further submitted that actually there was dispute between the husband of the informant Akhilesh Yadav and the petitioner due to love affair between the petitioner and the daughter of the informant. There is no eye witness to the alleged offence. No incriminating article has been recovered from the possession of the petitioner. The charge sheet has been submitted against the petitioner. The petitioner has one criminal antecedent in which he is on bail as stated in paragraph no. 3 of the bail petition. He is in custody in this case since 05.08.2024.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner and has further submitted that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R. There is direct allegation against the petitioner for firing on the husband of the informant, due to which, he received grievous injury. The doctor has also examined the injured, Akhilesh Yadav and has opined the injury is grievous in nature.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the period of custody, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Gaya in connection with Chandauti P.S. Case No. 284 of 2024 with further conditions:-
