3. The prosecution case, as per the First Information Report, is that the police, on secret information, intercepted one pick up van and on seeing the police, the driver of the said vehicle fled away leaving behind the pick up van. He further submits that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent of similar nature of offence and he has been made accused in this case merely because he happens to be the registered owner of the pick up van, in question. He further submits that he had no knowledge that illicit liquor was being transported by the driver in the pick up van.

5. Regards being had to the submission advanced on behalf of the parties concerned and taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent of similar nature of offence and he has been made accused in this case merely because he happens to be the registered owner of the seized pick up van, which was being driven by the driver, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.
6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.
