Colony P.S. Case No. 496 of 2024 instituted for the offence under Sections 316(2), 318(4), 338, 336(3), 303(2), 317(2), 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. Earlier vide order dated 06.05.2025 passed in Cr.
Misc. No. 8004 of 2025, regular bail of the petitioner was rejected by this Court considering the nature and gravity of months if the trial is not concluded.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present one is the second attempt for grant of regular bail to the petitioner. It is mainly submitted that charges against the petitioner have not been framed till date. It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 16.10.2024. Learned counsel further submits that there is no likelihood of the trial being concluded in the near future. 5. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody of the petitioner and taking into account the fact that continued detention of the petitioner would serve no purpose other than punitive pretrial incarceration, which is antithetical to the spirit of Article 21 of the Constitution of India, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
